March 14	McELMO CANYON SITES This will be a day trip to help us understand the Anasazi settlement pattern on the Colorado-Utah border. The hikes will require strong ankle support since they have many steep but short elevation changes. Trip Leaders: Kathleen and Jim Shadell 247-5597 shadjk@durango.net
March 20	McELMO CANYON SITES II This is a day trip to visit sites in McElmo Canyon that are not normally available to us. Bring good walking shoes, a sack lunch and appropriate clothing. Trip participation limit is 10. Trip Leader: Rae Haynes 247-1422 rae-haynes@hotmail.com
March 27 – 29	BLUFF AREA Participants of this three-day trip can either camp at the Sand Island BLM Campground or stay at a hotel in Bluff. We will visit a variety of Anasazi sites including the Bluff Great House, a remote great kiva and ruins near the San Juan River, and petroglyph panels. Historic sites will include the Bluff Fort, Bluff cemetery, Hole in the Rock Trail on San Juan Hill, and a trading post ruin. High clearance 4WD vehicles will be needed, but carpooling on location will be available. We will do some hiking over uneven terrain, but less than two miles. Trip participation limit is 16. Trip Leaders: Barb and Lyle Hancock 764-4531 lylehancock@bresnan.net
April 15 – 24	CHIHUAHUA MEXICO TOUR This multi-day trip south of the border will start and end at Deming, NM. This will be a guided expedition visiting Cases Grandes, Mata Ortiz, cliff dwellings, Copper Canyon and Tarahumara. Such an extensive trip requires advance preparations so an early sign up is suggested. There is a trip participation limit of 24. Trip Leaders: Eliane and John Viner 382-2594 j_e_viner@frontier.net
May 3	TOTAH PETROGLYPHS On this day trip we will hike up a canyon to see some marvelous petroglyphs. The level of difficulty of this two-mile hike is medium to hard, so bring shoes with good ankle support and trekking poles (if you use them). It may be hot, so bring a hat, sunscreen, and lots of water. Also, bring a sack lunch. High-clearance vehicles are recommended, but carpooling will be available. There is no trip participation limit. Trip Leader: Richard Robinson 259-1943 or robinson@frontier.net
May 8 - 11	NAVAJO COUNTRY

	This 4-day motel trip will visit the Crown Point Auction, the Hubble Trading Post and Canyon De Chelly. There will be several short (<1 mile) hikes to ruins and petroglyph sites, and a chance to buy the best in Navajo rugs and visit a historic trading post. Most hikes are relatively easy with one exception of which participation is not required. Trip participation limit to be designated (20?). Trip Leaders: Linda Robinson 259-1943 robinson@frontier.net and Gail Schulz 259-3249 mschulz@frontier.net
May 16	FARMINGTON AREA On this day-trip to Farmington we will visit the B-Square Ranch where we will explore several archaeological sites, a petroglyph panel, and view historical museum items and abundant wildlife.
